Crisis Camp London

Crisis Camp London is one of the international Crisis Camps supporting relief efforts in Haiti. It brings together technical and non-technical people to work together in collaboration with on-the-ground organisations, relief agencies and other crisis camps.

Learn more about Crisis Camps at <http://wiki.crisiscommons.org/>

We're meeting from 10am til 5pm every Saturday to work on projects that make life easier for people on the ground. We need more people to join in the fun and help with both technical and non-technical tasks:

system design, programming, giving user feedback, project management, facilitation, working on maps, gathering information from the web, the logistics and admin of keeping the camp running, and helping people to keep in touch with what is going on.

- Saturday 30 January – at the London Knowledge Lab
- Saturday 6 February – location TBA
- Saturday 13 February – at the London Knowledge Lab

Emerald St is a bit hard to find because construction work is covering its sign. It is very close to Lamb's Conduit Street and adjacent to the Police Station on Theobald's Road
